ABRE PILOTS VICTORIOUS IN NORTH KOREA

Seoul, Korea (AP)—The U. S. 1st Air Force said tonight U. S. pilots shot down four Communist jets and damaged six in aerial dog fights over North Korea today.

The smashing U. N. air victory announcement came only a few hours after the U. N. said it had downed 78 North Korea towns using Communist military installations that they are doomed to advance of air raids.

The Air Force said Sabre pilots destroyed four MIGs and damaged six in four separate fights. The MIG was hit by an F-84 underjet pilot.

The Air Force said the Red fighters ventured farther south in they had in recent months. The program of heralding air attacks is designed to spare non-combatant lives. It also has the effect of blunting the Communist air superiority over the Communist North Korean and Chinese commands.

At least two of the forewarned have been hit.

Gen. Glenn O. Barcus, U. S. 1st Air Force commander, said a warning program has been underway in Korea since mid-July. Millions of leaflets telling of future bombings have been dropped North Korea by B-29s flying out of Okinawa and Japan.

Shortly before an attack begins, Seoul advises the civilians the target area to get out immediately. The broadcasts continue right up until the time the attack begins.

The bold program was announced as Fifth Air Force fighters swept central and eastern North Korea Tuesday morning, bombing and shooting up targets behind Communist front lines.

LY KHAN HOPES TO SEE ESTRANGED WIFE

New York (AP)—Prince Aly Khan, who plans to see his estranged wife, film star Rita Hayworth, this time during his three-week stay in this country.

But the Moslem prince, who arrived yesterday on the liner Queen Elizabeth, declined to say whether he hopes to effect a reconciliation with his wife. Aly said a matter was "a personal question."

Aly said he would go to Saragosa, N. Y., for the sale on Aug. 10 of 20 yearling horses owned by a father, the Aga Khan.

Price Stabilizer Is Likely To Submit Resignation Tomorrow

Washington (AP)—Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall was reported today as likely to turn in his resignation to President Truman tomorrow.

Arnall was not immediately available for comment. Only last week he told a reporter that his departure was not imminent but that he planned to leave before long.

A source familiar with the plans of the former Georgia governor said that he hopes to get back to his home state Sept. 1 to resume a private law practice and other business duties. The resignation would be offered to take effect Sept. 1, it was said.

Arnall has headed the post since February when Michael V. Dalko quit to seek a United States senate seat in Ohio.

Arnall has differed sharply with other stabilization officials on the question of how big a steel price increase should have been granted. He bitterly opposed the increase of $5.20 per ton approved by Acting Defense Mobilizer John R. Tamm. The price chief said the steel hike should have been held at $2.84 as provided under existing price standards.

Arnall said last week his planned departure has nothing to do with the decision in the steel price issue. He explained that he originally planned to stay only six months "and that six-month period about to expire."

Wide Search Renewed Today For Woman Who Disappeared From Elk Township Cottage

The systematic search of a wide area of dense woodland in the vicinity of Quaker Road, Elk township, for Mrs. Ethel Wells, 50, wife of Gordon Wells, well known Frewsburg, N. Y., resident, was resumed early today by Sheriff L. E. Linder and members of the Warren barracks of the State Police, aided by a posse of about 25 experienced woodsmen familiar with the terrain in that area. Before leaving for the scene, Sheriff Linder stated that the investigation and searches up to this time failed to reveal any information that would help unravel the mystery of the disappearance of Mrs. Wells. In the meantime these facts have been accumulated by the investigating officers: Mrs. Wells, described as an unusually attractive woman for her age, was last seen by neighbors July 30th, not far from the Wells summer cottage on Quaker Road, near Scandia.

The absence of Mrs. Wells was discovered by her husband Wednesday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock, but he was not alarmed because he thought she had gone to their home in Frewsburg Thursday morning, when he found she was neither at the home of neighbors, relatives or friends, he reported her missing and solicited the aid of friends. Friday she was reported missing to Chautauque and Warren county officials.

Authorities have traced correspondence written Tuesday by Mrs. Wells to persons in Vermont, in which she is said to have stated she was despondent.

The name of the displaced man, from Czechoslovakia, who has been living at the Wells place since last November is Wassili Gusev, and not Wassley Gusev, as was first reported. He was brought to this country by the World Council of Churches, and placed with the Wells family through the Church World Service of New York City. The authorities have learned that he wrote someone in New Jersey last week, and Jersey police are co-operating in the search for the unidentified friend. He presumably left this area on a bus bound for New York last Tuesday, after the Wells are reported to have had an argument Monday over his attentions to the woman. A close check has revealed that Gusev has not reported to either of the agencies that placed him here, since arriving in the area.

Officials are checking the possibility that Mrs. Wells carried off two vials of strychnine, which Mr. Wells said were in the cottage before she disappeared. She was also carrying a three-tined fork, which she usually had with her on hikes. She was wearing slacks and a sweater.

NUMBER DEAD IN BUS CRASH IS UNKNOWN

Wasco, Tex. (AP)—Authorities worked today to determine just how many persons died in the flaming crash of two Greyhound buses near here yesterday. Meanwhile, civilians working for the military barred newsmen and others from the morgue where the bodies are held.

At least 28 bodies have been recovered from the collision and flame wrecked buses, but a pile of charred flesh and bone remained for classification and identification. Only seven of the dead had been positively identified by mid-morning, 30 hours after the wreck occurred.

Twenty-five persons were listed as injured. Today, all were declared no longer in critical danger.

Executive Editor Sam Wood of the Warco Times-Herald said one of his reporters, Mary Ann Jennings, was barred from the morgue by a Wasco policeman. The policeman said he was acting under orders to bar persons from entering the morgue. The order came, Wood reported, from two civilians, an identification team from Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, O. They were R. L. Trask and R. W. Ralston.

Wood said he would make every effort to break what he called "censorship."

Wood said he believed the morgue was closed so that no identification of military personnel would be made until military authorities released the names.

Heat from the flames was so intense that molten metal and glass poured in little streams across the cracked highway. Officers believed some bodies were completely cremated.

Meanwhile, officials of the Greyhound Lines, local police and the Texas Department of Public Safety tried to find out what happened and why.

The two speeding vehicles rammed together and burst into flames about 4 a. m. Two young drivers—Milton Berry Herring, 24, and B. E. (Billy) Malone, 23—were piloting their big vehicles through the pre-dawn blackness of Central Texas. Herring was completing his fifth day as a driver; Malone had been driving about four months. Both were among the dead.

Bodies were thrown burning from the buses by the force of the impact. Men, women and children tried vainly to get out small windows. The safety exit on one of the buses was jammed by the body of the other vehicle which had swung around alongside it.

FBI Adds Florida Fugitive to List of 'Most Wanted Men'

Washington (AP)—A 37-year-old desperado who escaped four times from Florida state prisons today was added to the FBI's list of "10 most wanted men."

He is Leonard Joseph Zalutsky, of Allentown, Pa., with many aliases and a record dating back to when he was 12 years old. The FBI described him as being "of above-average intelligence, cold-blooded, vicious and believed to be armed." He is reported to have said he does not intend to be taken alive.

Zalutsky is medium-sized and dark-haired. His most distinguishing characteristic is an artificial left eye. He has a number of bullet scars on legs and body.

He was serving life at Raiford, Fla. state prison for the murder of a Miami police officer when he made his latest escape in September, 1951 by hurling "Molotov cocktails"—lighted gasoline bombs—at a tower guard and starting a major fire in the institution. Zalutsky fled in the confusion, temporarily kidnapping the wife of the prison dentist in her automobile.

The Miami officer was killed in a gun battle when Zalutsky resisted arrest for a 1933 payroll robbery at Allentown. He had previously served in several Pennsylvania institutions for juvenile delinquency.

TRUMAN VOTES AND PLANS RETURN EAST

Independence, Mo. (AP)—President Truman voted today in Missouri's hotly contested Democratic primary before flying back to Washington for the resumption of engagements cancelled by his recent illness.

He cast his ballot for State Atty. Gen. J. E. Buck Taylor for the U. S. senatorial nomination. Taylor's opponent is Stuart Symington, former Truman Air Force secretary, National Security Resources Board chairman and RFC administrator.

The President cast his lot with Taylor, he explained, because Taylor had supported him in every political fight he has had in 30 years of public life.

The President's plane, the Independence, took off from Fairair Airport in nearby Kansas City, Kan., at 10 a. m. (EST), on the flight to Washington.

Mrs. Truman, who is staying in Independence, accompanied him to the airport and kissed him goodbye. So did his sister, Mary Jane Truman.

Dem Leaders Expect South To Be Solid

By The Associated Press

Top Democratic leaders predicted today the South will remain solid this November despite rumblings of Dixie dissatisfaction with the party platform.

The Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, said Southern political leaders have given him "heartening evidences" of the "fidelity of the South to the Democratic party in this campaign."

The Democratic senators today gave him more reason for optimism; Russell Long of Louisiana and Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island said in separate interviews the Republican candidate won't win a single Southern state.

Both candidates had busy schedules today. Eisenhower flies to Los Angeles to make his first major speech since his nomination, and Stevenson has appointments with two White House intimates to talk over campaign plans.

Also jockeying for political headlines were three primaries, in Missouri—where President Truman is taking part—and in Michigan and Kansas.

POLIO DEATH

Light Rains That Fall in Some Sections Of Country Are Too Little and Too Late

By The Associated Press

Light rain fell in parts of the nation's Southern and Eastern drought areas today but it was mostly a case of too little and too late.

Parched Maine got the biggest break. Light rain dampened most of the state. Showers also sprinkled parts of drought-singed Tennessee and Kentucky.

The drought that began in mid-June already has destroyed more than a half billion dollars worth of pastures and corn, tobacco, cotton, and vegetable crops.

Farmers, faced with burnt-out grazing lands, have dumped cattle on the market by the thousands.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture moved to bring quick relief to hard-pressed farmers in the dry areas. It summoned its agents from eight drought-stricken states, plus Texas and Oklahoma, to meet in Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday and Thursday.

Plans will be worked out for getting immediate government loans to farmers to buy feed and replant crops wherever possible.

Other states called to the Atlanta conference are Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, South Carolina and Tennessee. The government also has designated Massachusetts and Maine as disaster areas, and eligible for such loans.

Help came from another quarter Monday when the Interstate Commerce Commission authorized cut-rate transportation rates on hay shipped into the drought stricken states for feeding livestock.

IN WARREN ON FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, to parade at 6 p. m. and to give a public concert at 9:15 p. m. will be the most famous Army band in the country today, the 31st Infantry Dixie Band, shown above in their sharp Confederate-Gray uniforms. The band will be brought to Warren by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to show its appreciation of the grand support given its July 4th celebration and the circus. Two Warren young men, Cpls. Ed Wood and Nick Geracimos, are members of the band. The band has a membership of 102.

Famed 31st Infantry Musical Organization Will Parade And Play Concert Here August 22

Final plans for the appearance and entertainment of the nationally famous Dixie Band of the 31st Infantry Division in Warren on Friday, August 22, were worked out last night when Chairman Alan H. Buerkle and his Junior Chamber of Commerce committee met with the retailers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Dixie Band, composed of over 100 soldier musicians, will parade at 6 p. m. and will give a public concert at 9:15 p. m. at War Memorial Field. The band is being brought to Warren by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a gesture of appreciation for the magnificent support given the July 4th celebration and the circus project by the people of Warren. No charge is to be made for any part of the entertainment.

The line of march was announced today by Mr. Buerkle as follows: From Russell street west on Pennsylvania avenue to Poplar street, north on Poplar to Third, east on Third to Hickory, south on Hickory to Pennsylvania, east on Second to Liberty and north on Liberty to headquarters at the YMCA.

During the past 18 months this famous and colorful band has won new honors for the already tradition-laden "Dixie" Division from Alabama and Mississippi. Clad in traditional Confederate-Army ceremonial dress uniforms, the Band has traveled to the North and South, to the East and the West, participating in national bond drives, blood donor programs, recruiting drives, and to several national veterans' encampments. The visit to Warren will be made while the Band is en route to New York to lead the Alabama delegation in the national American Legion convention parade.

The band originated as a unit in Montgomery, Alabama, and was inducted into the 31st Division in January, 1951. Since then its ranks have been joined by many outstanding and well known young professional musicians from the Northern states. Today the Band has a strength of 102 members, two-thirds of whom hail from above the Mason-Dixon line.

Since first drawing national recognition during the summer of 1951 when it led the VFW national convention parade down the streets of New York, the Band has traveled over 14,000 miles in its music-making expeditions. Soon after the VFW convention the Band headed South to gather more national laurels at the American Legion's convention parade in Miami. Last November it performed before more than one-half million spectators in Charlotte, N. C., when invited to be Honor Band of the event.

LEWIS SENDS REMINDERS TO MINE OWNERS

Washington (AP)—The specter of another industry-throttling strike before the steel mills have had a chance to get back to full blast production across today as John L. Lewis served notice that his United Mine Workers' contracts are ending next month.

Lewis, president of the Mine Workers Union, wrote Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, that his present work contract will expire Sept. 30.

That's 60 days from the date on Lewis' letter. Terms of the existing contract provide termination upon 60 days' notice by either side.

The notice to Moody, following by 10 days similar word to the Bituminous Coal Operators Association, is certain to mean a shut-down of all but a small portion of soft coal mining the end of next month unless Lewis, Moody and Harry M. Moses agree on new contract terms. Moses heads the bituminous association, representing an estimated 240 million tons of annual production, much of it owned by the steel industry. The Moody group produces around 100 million tons a year.

Lewis, it was also learned yesterday, has served contract termination notice on the anthracite, or hard coal industry, which employs 100,000 miners. The bituminous diggers number 450,000.

A soft coal industry official said there's little likelihood of any full-scale bargaining talks for several weeks.

Basic daily minimum wage in the bituminous fields is $16.35, plus overtime or other extras which bring the average close to $18 a day. Anthracite workers average a little over $17 a day.

NORTH CANADA HAS MINING CLAIMS RUSH

Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, (AP)—One of Northern Canada's biggest rushes for mining claims was in full swing today, with uranium instead of the traditional gold as the lure.

Hundreds of prospectors scammed about Saskatchewan's northwest corner, staking claims to explore hundreds of square miles for the prime raw material of the atomic age.

More than 500 claims, each 1,500 feet by 1,500 feet, were expected to be marked off during the first two days. The staking started officially at 8 a. m. yesterday, but officials figured that some prospectors in remote corners of the bush probably got a head start.

CARS COLLIDE

Cars operated by Lorraine Foster and Wallace Barstow, both of Russell, collided at Russell at the intersection with the Scandia road yesterday shortly before 2 p. m. No one was injured and state police, who investigated, said that total damage was estimated at $200. They said that the Foster car was proceeding west, and the Barstow car going east at the time of the crash, and that the vehicles sideswiped.

Detour Warnings Replaced By "Temporary Route" Signs

Harrisburg (AP)—Pennsylvania's summer tourists can drive the length and breadth of the Keystone State today without spotting a detour sign although there are 87 major construction projects underway.

The secret is not only that detour signs have been replaced by "temporary route" signs but that a number of the through highways in the commonwealth are in such good condition no new work is necessary at this time.

A survey in the State Highway Department's latest construction bulletin shows that the U. S. Routes 30 and 422, two of the main east-west highways, and U. S. Routes 11, 309 and 611, north-south arteries, are entirely free of roadwork.

"Most of these roads have had extensive repairs since the war and are in good shape," a department spokesman said.

Many of the other main routes have at least 25 miles of detours in operation as part of the department's nearly 100 million dollar roadwork program this summer.

In addition to the 87 detours there are 75 major projects where one-way or limited traffic is maintained.

But wherever you go the familiar "detour" sign is missing this year. The department has changed the signs to read "temporary route."

Student Disappears From Liner at Sea

Hoboken, N. J. (AP)—A pretty 18-year-old art student disappeared from the liner Veendam in mid-Atlantic after leaving a note expressing despondency, a ship's officer said when the vessel docked here today.

The girl, Patsy Ann Partridge, was on her way from England with her family to visit an aunt in Short Hills, N. J., when she was reported missing at 6:30 a. m. last Wednesday.

A seaman on watch reported that he saw Patsy Ann pacing the deck, apparently in a distraught state, about three hours before her disappearance.

Accompanying her on the voyage were her father, Jesse Partridge, London export manager for an American heating and plumbing firm, her mother, and a young sister, Harriet, 17.

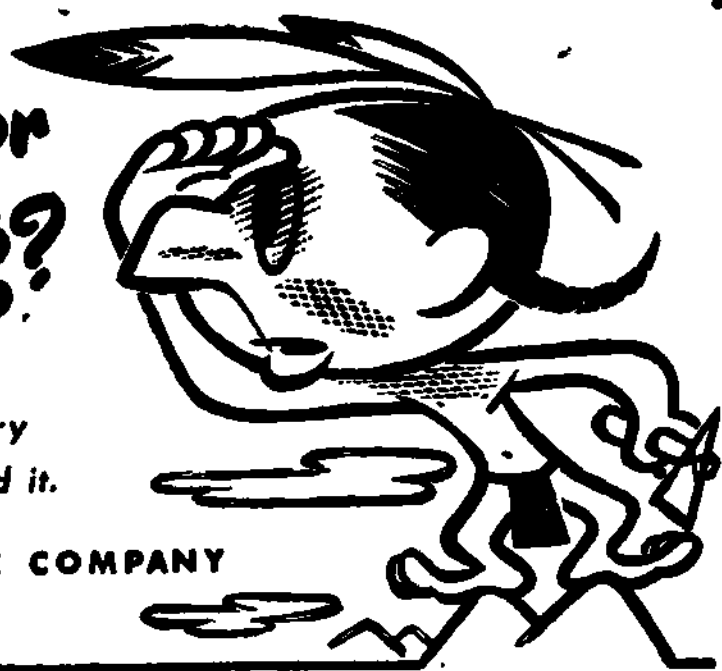

Harriet reported her sister missing.

Harriet found a note which Patsy Ann had written to her parents and left in a purse, the ship's spokesman said.

Erie Files Protest Over Gas Co. Ban

Erie—A group of 22 consumers Thursday filed a complaint with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, charging the Pennsylvania Gas Co. with discrimination in its system of issuing permits for gas heating systems.

It was expected that the City of Erie will join the protesting consumers in fighting the gas company's permit system. Councilman Michael Cannavino said he would introduce a resolution to that effect at a council meeting.

The complaint was filed in Harrisburg by Atty. Samuel Baker. It asked for a PUC hearing and a ruling on the group's contention that "it is the duty of respondent to furnish gas service to all members of the public who request it."

The Pennsylvania Gas Co. announced recently that it would initiate a crackdown on consumers who were using gas for heating without obtaining necessary permits.

The gas company argues that, because of severe shortages of the fuel, it is necessary to limit the number of users.

In home cases, the firm shut off all gas supplies to consumers until they agreed to discontinue gas service for "space heating."

All 22 complainants, according to Atty. Baker, have been denied permits and some of them did have gas service discontinued until they signed an "agreement form."

Baker declared they did so under duress.

4-H Club Week At State College Aug. 11-14 Busy Affair

The 26th annual 4-H Club Week, August 11 to 14, at the Pennsylvania State College promises to be a busy affair for the more than 1,000 boys and girls who attend including five from Agriculture Clubs in Warren county.

Assistant County Agent, Paul Hoke, reports that registration and enrollment closed Saturday, July 26. Those going from Warren county are John Sechrist, Leslie Curtis, Gene Gruber, Annette Curtis and Amy Curtis. They include county judging and demonstration teams as follows: John Sechrist, Leslie Curtis, and Gene Gruber, Dairy Judging; and Amy and Annette Curtis as Dairy Demonstration Team. Club members will be housed in college dormitories.

Again the program will combine instruction, entertainment, and recreation. The instruction will include addresses, demonstrations, and contests.

Because of the popularity of assembly programs featuring club members, that plan is being continued. Many of them in the different counties are now at work on musical numbers, dramatics, and stunts.

Soft ball will feature the sports program for boys, and several of the counties will be entering county teams for a tournament, to be decided the final day.

Judging contests in agriculture will be on a team basis, three members to a team. These contests will be in dairy cattle, six classes; general livestock, two classes each of beef cattle, sheep, and swine; swine, four classes; poultry, five classes; vegetables, classes in tomatoes, sweet corn, peppers, beans, beets, carrots, onions, cabbage, and cucumbers; flower identification.

Silver cups and plaques will be awarded to winning teams.

Demonstration contests will be held also in clean milk (production and handling), poultry production, and poultry consumption, and exhibits by homemaking clubs.

Amateur Wrestling Program Aug. 14th At Memorial Field

One of the best amateur wrestling programs ever offered fans of the area is being arranged for Thursday evening, August 14, at 8:30 o'clock, at War Memorial Field under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club as a benefit for the field.

Topping the eight bouts that will be presented will be Homer Barr wrestling coach of the Warren High School, former Penn State champion, who will meet his successor at the college, Lynn H. Hingworth, Clearfield, both heavyweights.

A good light heavyweight is being secured for Bob Benson, one of Warren High's outstanding grapplers last year. Others who will appear on the card being arranged by Bob Jewell, are:

Carl Nelson, Warren, vs. Mutt Forcey, Clearfield, 165 pounds. Forcey is a former State high school champion.

Clark Wright, Warren, vs. Paul Swales, Clearfield, 145 pounds. Swales is another former school champion.

Denny Brown, Warren, vs. Russ Crponi, Clearfield, 127 pounds.

Don Mimm, Warren, vs. Dean Crponi, Clearfield, 95 pounds.

Bob Jewell will be the referee and all bouts will be under amateur or scholastic rules. They will be staged on a mat to be arranged on the ground at Memorial Field and not in a ring as was the case for the professional matches last month.

BUT HOW DID HE GET IN?—Photos above show the rescue of a dog from a narrow crack in a concrete railway embankment in Chicago. The dog had been stuck there nearly two days. At left, Walter Baron, of the Animal Welfare League, works to free the pooch. At right, Allen Glisch carries the rescued animal to an Animal Welfare wagon. It was necessary to administer an anesthetic, grease the dog and knock out a three-foot piece of concrete before it could be removed.

Bloodmobile Visit Puts Youngsville Residents on Spot

The residents of the "Biggest Little Town on the Map"—Youngsville—can put the residents of Warren to shame Wednesday, when the Bloodmobile visits that thriving and patriotic community. Warren had a miserable showing during the last visit of the bloodmobile in the county seat.

"However," said those hard working Red Cross people in Youngsville, "the response will have to be far greater than it had been up until 8:00 a. m. this (Tuesday) morning. At that time we had less than half the required number necessary to obtain the 150 pint quota which is assigned to Youngsville and vicinity."

The Bloodmobile will be located at the Methodist church in Youngsville from 11 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. on Wednesday, August 6th and workers there are making every effort to show Warren "just how it's done" to obtain the quota.

"Drop-Ins" will be most welcome to help swell the total; and employees of the National Forge & Ordnance Company, both in the plant and the office are particularly appealed to help put this visit of the Bloodmobile "Over the top."

LEG INJURED
Melvin L. Burdick of Clearville, employed by the West's Head Oil Company, was admitted at Warren General Hospital yesterday for treatment for a badly injured right leg, sustained when a 500-pound drill fell on the leg at a lease near Cherry Grove. The leg was fractured and badly crushed, hospital authorities said, and Burdick's condition is listed as fair this morning.

COLLISION AT ELBOW
Lawrence A. Dunning, 23, of Corning, N. Y., was charged by Pennsylvania State Police with driving too fast for conditions when they investigated an accident at 6:35 a. m. today at Devil's Elbow, Kinzua road. It is stated that Dunning, driving north, was unable to make the curve and skidded head-on into a car driven by James Dompilio, 31, of Kinzua, who was en route to his work in Warren. None was injured but damage to the two cars was estimated at $350.

BUS INSPECTION
State police tomorrow begin the annual inspection of all school buses in the county. County Superintendent of Schools H. L. Blair has sent notices to all bus drivers to appear at the Market street station with their vehicles on any Wednesday during August. Drivers must bring with them certificates of physical examination, and their school bus operator's licenses, issued in addition to their regular licenses. Police inspect the vehicles for lights, brakes, seating arrangements, exhaust system, fire extinguishers, chains, flares, tires and emergency exits. New school bus drivers will be examined and tested by the regular examination detail from Erie headquarters, who are in Warren each Wednesday.

Borough Council President Resigns At Youngsville

The resignation of Carl E. Anderson, president of the Youngsville borough council, was accepted last evening as members convened for the August meeting, and Earl D. Wilson, of Youngsville, was appointed to fill out Mr. Anderson's unexpired term of about three years to run. Elected as council president to succeed Mr. Anderson was Gilbert Sanford.

A new borough superintendent was also chosen last night. He is Laurence J. Heideger, who will succeed Rex McLean, acting superintendent for the last several months.

Council approved bills in the sum of $2539. A resolution, authorizing deductions from pay of borough employees and necessary boro contribution, was passed creating social security for all Youngsville city workers. Council also passed ordinance No. 225 extending College street for a distance of approximately 338 feet and placing a necessary street light on the present extension of the same street.

A discussion on rent control was held but no action taken. Also discussed was the making of 100F avenue a one-way street from East Main to College street, and it is expected that the necessary police regulation will be passed at the September meeting.

Necessary papers, asking for Youngsville's share of the county liquid fuels tax were also prepared, the money to be used for street and bridge maintenance and repairs. Council accepted ownership of a lot on College street left by the late Mrs. Belle Kay as a site for a new public library.

The police report for July listed two arrests for drunk and disorderly; five motor vehicle arrests; 32 parking tickets issued; meter collections of $323.28. Justice of the Peace W. H. Brazee reported $106 in fines.

Although very high temperatures can be found high above the earth, the atmosphere is so thin it is believed they would have little effect on an object moving through it.

A Famous American Ship

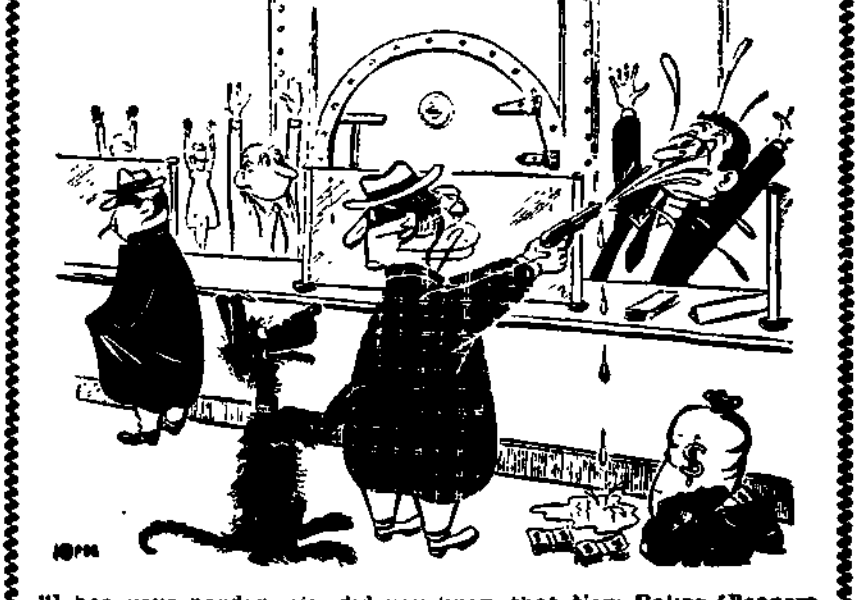

Sketch of the DREADNOUGHT, most famous Atlantic packet, whose record passage across the Atlantic made in 1859 still stands, according to the American Merchant Marine Institute. Her best passage between New York and Liverpool was 13 days, 8 hours, a far cry from the 3 day, 10 hour record established by the new superliner UNITED STATES. For over a decade the DREADNOUGHT was the champion of the Atlantic Ocean before she was shifted to other services. Her proud skipper, Capt. Samuel Samuels, was a national hero, the ideal of the Yankee far, writes W. L. Marvin in his book "The American Merchant Marine." The DREADNOUGHT lived up to her name in no uncertain manner. She gained a reputation for sailing with full canvass in the worst weather, day and night.

Union to Provide Another Video Set For State Hospital

The members of the Warren State Hospital Local No. 469 were honored at their regular monthly meeting last night by the visitation of twelve members of the Polk State School Local No. 1050.

Among the many items brought before the meeting, was the report of James Blyler, and Charles Hagan on the banquet honoring International President Arnold Zander, at State College on July 28th.

The members also voted to add $113.25 from their treasury, to the amount remaining from the "Parade of Bands" program, to secure another TV set for the use of patients at the hospital. This brings the total number of TV sets donated as a result of the "Parade of Bands" program to four.

Because of popular demand for another "Parade of Bands" program, the members appointed Jack Henry as chairman of a committee to investigate the possibility of having another program this fall.

Inasmuch as the hospital is still lacking several TV sets, it was decided that this program would again benefit the TV fund.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROADERS

This is the year when the middle of the road seems cozy, says James Marlow in his column "The World Today," written for the Associated Press and the Times-Mirror. The politicians indicated they thought so when they picked Gen. Eisenhower and Gov. Stevenson.

Both are middle-of-the-roaders. The general is a little to the right of President Truman. Neither man is an apostle of change, socially or economically. Although both are internationalists, that's usual now, not radical.

If there had been wide public pressure to move left or far right, the convention politicians undoubtedly would have responded by producing the kind of candidate wanted. No matter how boss-ridden, a political party which wants to stay in business must be a kind of thermometer measuring the public mood.

The people have shown that in time of crisis, when great remedies are needed for survival, they not only will accept but seek changes, even severe ones. This was demonstrated in 1932 when they elected Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was eager to experiment, instead of Herbert Hoover who didn't want to rock the boat even when it was sinking. In choosing Hoover that year the Republicans either misread their thermometer or ignored it.

Roosevelt's four victories were in abnormal times. By 1948, when he was dead, the picture had changed. We were still in serious trouble abroad, thanks to the Russians (according to the Democrats) or to Democratic bungling (according to the Republicans). But war was not imminent.

In that fairly normal year Democrats and President Truman, although he had offered his Fair Deal as a continuation of the New Deal which had been interrupted by the war, barely squeaked through.

This election year is much like 1948 with some notable new exceptions: higher taxes, corruption in government, and the distressing and unfinished Korean War. Otherwise, incomes and employment are at a peak. Our foreign relations are serious but war still does not seem imminent.

The arguments this year between the parties and the candidates will be over government expenses and corruption, the handling of foreign policy, and other issues which the politicians will have no trouble dredging up.

But the voters, not in peril now, will not have to choose between a stand-patter and a man with a gleam in his eye and a key to the promised land.

WARREN WILL RESOUND TO "DIXIE"

There'll be a big time in the old town the night of Friday, August 22, when the nationally famous Dixie Band of the 31st Infantry Division will be guests of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

You'll hear "Dixie" played as you've never heard it played before, and many other numbers dear to the hearts of all Americans.

Meeting last night with the Chamber of Commerce retailers' committee, the Jaycees worked out the program for the evening which was confirmed this morning in a telephone conversation with Lt. Col. John E. Mandeville, USA, public information officer at Camp Atterbury.

The famous Dixie Band, with over 100 members, will parade in the business section at 6 p. m. Then, at 9:15 p. m., the Band will give a concert at War Memorial Field which is open to the public, free of charge. The Jaycees are bringing the band to Warren as a gesture of appreciation for the town's magnificent support of its July 4th celebration and the circus project.

The Dixie Band will arrive the evening of August 21, and will be in Warren until Saturday morning, August 23. Many Warren homes will be opened to the young soldiers, who always enjoy a home-cooked meal, and the entire town will extend the glad hand of welcome to this fine aggregation of musicians.

The people of Youngsville and vicinity have a real challenge on their hands in the visit of the Bloodmobile there tomorrow at the First Methodist church, from eleven a. m., until 5:30 p. m., in that the registrations today were far below the estimated number required to assure the success of the project. However, the good people of that progressive community are not unmindful of the task that lies before them, and there is every reason to predict that they will rise to the occasion, and Wednesday evening's report will be far more satisfactory than many feel today.

Aw, C'mon Boys! Look at This One for Awhile!

Here And There

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is scheduled to be at the Methodist church in Youngsville tomorrow from 11 o'clock in the morning until 5:30 in the afternoon, and the advance information we have about the prospects for the visit is discouraging to say the least, although we have been informed that the good women of that village have been engaged in an intensive telephone campaign in an effort to make certain that enough donors will respond to make it possible for the unit to collect a fairly sizeable total toward the quota of 150 pints. In connection with the visit of the Bloodmobile the following article of local interest appears in the July issue of "Pint Points," carried the following interesting item regarding The Sunray Electric campaign to secure donors on the last visit:

A new approach to the problem of indifference toward the Blood Program was tried recently when Sunray Electric, Incorporated, of Warren, Pennsylvania, passed out to each of its 150 employees handbills announcing a Bloodmobile visit to the Warren Chapter House. The handbills, which were distributed with pledge cards, urged the employee to do his or her share towards surpassing a self-imposed minimum quota of 25 donations.

Signed by Robert E. Dunham and Stuart G. Nelson, members of the Industrial Recruiting Committee of the Chapter, the bill was a simple multigraph job on white 8 1/2 "x 11" paper, and was captioned:

"Can You Do Less—for More?"

In addition to giving essential information of the Bloodmobile visit and advising the employee whom to contact when he decided to become a blood donor, it created interest with such appeals as:

"Remember, some neighbor's boy, yes, even some relative, is giving blood for you in Korea."

"Won't you give just a little of your blood for him here in Warren?"

"Your blood may save a life!"

Terse, Tart and Timely: J. H. Goldstein, examiner for the Public Utility Commission, and former district attorney, will be cutting cake and blowing out candles tomorrow. Our old friend Denny J. Driscoll, St. Marys, former congressman, lately returned from the Democratic National convention in Chicago where he served as a delegate from this congressional district, gave the highlights of that gathering in a talk over radio station WKBI Sunday afternoon.

Driscoll went to Chicago pledged to support Sen. Estes Kefauver primary winner in Pennsylvania, stuck to his choice through the first two ballots, then joined in the third ballot unanimous choice for Gov. Adlai Stevenson. The longest hospitalization of any patient in the new Corry Memorial Hospital ended Thursday with the discharge of Mrs. A. G. (Abe) Buller of that city, who spent 183 days there since being admitted following a serious auto accident in which the Buller car was hit by a Warren youth after the operator is reported to have lost control of the vehicle. Warren county will be well represented when the Pennsylvania Federation of Young Republican Clubs holds its biennial convention in Harrisburg August 22-23. William P. (Bill) Lombard, who left Corry nine years ago after long association with The Journal, has announced the sale of his semi-weekly newspaper which he has very successfully developed at Blairsville, but has made no announcement as to future plans. Construction of a modern roadside rest—moulded in scenic beauty of the McKean Memorial Forest on Route 6 between Mt. Jewett and Hazlehurst, will be completed and ready for use within the next ten days, and will include picnic tables, pure spring water and toilet facilities. According to "Pint Points" printed in the interest of the Buffalo Bloodmobile units, the Warren General Hospital received 77 1/2 pints in the distribution of blood during June.

Most plants which grow in meadow land are European imports. The clovers were brought here deliberately, but daisies, buttercups, thistles and others moved here by themselves.

Comic Opera Plots Flourished Backstage in Farouk's Ouster

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Behind the ouster of Egypt's fat King Farouk were a couple of comic opera plots worthy of the best traditions in an old-time Latin-American banana republic revolution. The first had to do with whether or not one of the king's favorites, Gen. Haidar Pasha, could be continued in office as president of the Cairo Officers' Club.

The second had to do with charges of graft in the procurement of defective arms and ammunition for Egypt's disastrous war against Israel at the end of 1948.

An investigation into this graft was whitewashed, more or less with the king's blessing if not on his direct orders. Much of the graft was believed to have gone to high officers in the royal palace. Some of it may have gone directly to the king himself.

That was what burned the young line officers who fought the war against Israel with bad guns and shells.

After this Arab-Israeli war was over in the spring of '49, the Egyptian troops marched home to Cairo, where they were hailed as conquering heroes. Roses were strewn in their path. Actually, they had taken a terrible beating.

It wasn't all the Egyptians' fault. Shortly after the war began the United Nations slapped an arms embargo on Egypt. That prevented the British from supplying the Egyptian army. The Egyptians had to buy surplus Italian army goods. Ammunition was defective. Grenades exploded in the Egyptians' hands before they could be thrown. Rifles exploded in their faces.

What made it worse, was that these supplies had been bought at inflated prices. And this inflation included a healthy piece of graft for the king's corrupt war ministry officials. When the troops came home they talked, and they demanded a house-cleaning.

Gen. Haidar Pasha, commander-in-chief of the Egyptian army, was suspect. He prevented any investigation until November, 1950, when he was finally forced to retire so the charges could be brought to trial. But the probe got nowhere. Principal reason was that the king objected to the investigation as disruptive of army morale.

Then came the big blow-up over the Cairo Officers' Club election. If all this sounds a little silly and picaresque as a cause for overthrowing a throne, American observers familiar with the Egyptian scene explain that the president of the officers' club is the number-one social leader in Cairo. The job carries prestige.

YOUNGER members of the officers' corps have long rebelled at the dictation from the patriarchs. These younger officers have been threatening social revolt and army reform for some 20 years. Among the leaders of this group of army reformers was Maj.-Gen. Mohammed Naguib.

The younger officers decided to run General Naguib for president of the officers' club. When General Haidar postponed the elections, the young officers went to the Abbessia barracks outside Cairo, and in a rump session voted Naguib into office.

The king protested. His premier at the time, Sirry Pasha, advised the king to appoint Naguib as minister of war, but the king said he did not consider Naguib loyal to the throne.

Then he reversed the young officers' election and interferred to order Naguib ousted as president of the officers' club, and to fire Sirry Pasha as premier.

That's how it all began. Naguib seized Cairo, installed Aly Maher Pasha as premier, and forced King Farouk to abdicate.

Early August Bride

At 7:00 p. m. Saturday, August 2, in First Lutheran church, the Rev. Edward K. Rogers performed the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Marilyn Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Peterson, 408 Crescent Park, and Norman Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. English, Russell.

Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom played traditional wedding music for the service, with the vows taken before an altar decorated with vases of white gladioli. Palms and candles holding white tapers completed the setting.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of lace and net over satin, styled with fitted bodice and buttoned up the back to an illusion neckline, long sleeves tapered at the wrists, and full skirt of net with lace paneling. A bonnet-style headpiece of lace and net over satin held her finger-ring veil and her white Bible was topped with a corsage of white roses.

The maid of honor, Leota Barrett, wore lavender lace and net over tulle, fashioned with mandarin collar and cap sleeves. With it she wore a matching cap and carried yellow carnations in a colonial arrangement. As bridesmaid, Ada Wright of Russell wore a similar gown and cap of yellow and carried a colonial bouquet of lavender carnations.

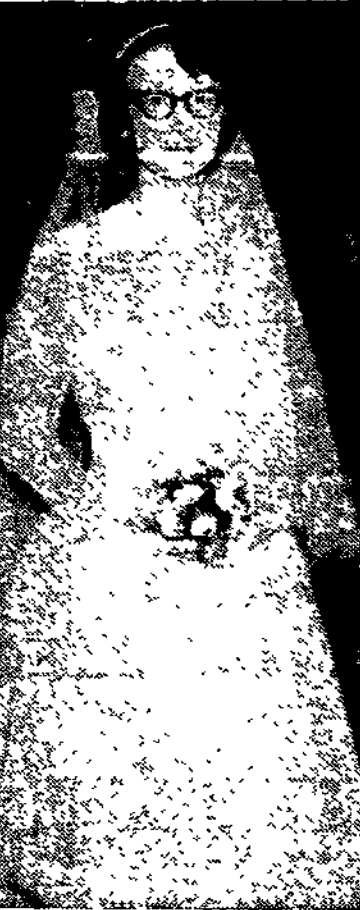

Harley See, Youngsville, was best man and ushers were William Barrett and Donald Walters. The bride's mother wore a pink print dress and Mrs. English was in navy blue, each with a yellow carnation corsage.

A reception for 100 guests followed immediately in the church parish house, with guests from Erie, Findley Lake, Russell and Youngsville. Vases of garden flowers decorated the mantels and bridal figures in miniature topped the three-tier bride's cake. Mrs. Harley See served the cake, Mrs. Dorothy Lucas poured, and Mrs. Evelyn Warchel was in charge of the guest book.

Save Child From Your Errors By Being Honest Above All

A MOTHER whose own marriage ended in divorce, now wise enough to realize it might have been saved, asks what she can tell her about-to-be-married daughter to keep her from making the same mistakes.

First of all, tell her honestly that you have lived to regret the mistakes you made in your own marriage. That, if you had it to do over again you would try harder, and put up with more, in order to hold the marriage together through trying times.

It takes courage for a parent to make that kind of admission to a grown child but it is one way a child of divorce can be helped to avoid the mistakes made in his parents' marriage.

Don't fear that your daughter will have less respect for you because of your frankness.

Young people admire honesty. Few of them really think their parents are perfect no matter how much they try to make them think so.

THE GAINS ARE GREAT

SO parents really lose no respect by confessing their own mistakes and trying to help their children see life clearly and avoid those same errors.

And remember this. Our children don't love us for our perfection or pretense of it. They love us for the human beings we are and give us respect for our honesty, our courage, our ability to see ourselves as we really are.

So if you want to help your daughter make a success of her own marriage be honest with her. Let her know just how much a woman loses by divorce.

Let her know most marriage failures aren't the fault of just one partner.

If you can help her to see that, you will have taught her some important truths about marriage despite the failure of your own.

GABRESKI HONORED AT CEREMONY IN BOSTON

Boston (AP)—Air Force Col. Francis S. Gabreski, one of the nation's jet aces who said "we're knocking down eight MIGs for every Sabre jet we lose in Korea," was rewarded the Distinguished Service Medal last night prior to the annual Disabled Veterans' exhibition baseball game.

The Oil City, Pa., flyer, credited with 33½ German planes in World War II plus six and one-half more enemy craft in Korea, received the award before the Boston Red Sox met the New York Giants in a charity clash for the benefit of hospitalized veterans. The Red Sox won, 1-0.

The 33-year-old ace was awarded the DSM by Maj. Gen. Alvan C. Kincaid, vice commander of the Continental Air Command, Mitchell Air Force Base, N. Y.

Mayor John B. Hynes of Boston and representatives of Polish-American groups and other military and civic leaders greeted Gabreski upon his arrival at Logan International Airport from Battle Creek, Mich.

Bands during the famed Christmas Festival Parade, known as Carols on Wheels.

The nationally prominent sports classic, the Blue and Gray football game in Montgomery, Ala., last Dec., afforded the Band its first opportunity to return to its National Guard home station.

In March of this year, the Dixie Band participated in the largest airlift of combat troops in history when it was flown from Shaw Air Base, S. C., to Fort Hood, Tex., over 1,000 miles, to participate in the joint Army-Air Force Exercise "Long-Horn." A goodwill concert tour from Carolina to Texas; saw the Band parading in nine principal cities along the route. Upon arrival at Fort Hood, the Dixie Band journeyed to the Temple, Tex., Air Base to "play in" all the combat troops of the 31st Division as they arrived from Carolina over a period of six days and nights.

At the end of this maneuver, the Band preceded the Division to the new station, Camp Atterbury, Ind., playing another good will tour in the cities along the way. On May 1 of this year the Dixie Band was honored and featured at a 78th running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs where the band thrilled the audience with the rendition of "Dixie," the theme song, and other Southern martial airs, and also played the traditional Derby song, "My Old Kentucky Home" for a radio and television audience of over fifty million persons throughout the world.

The Band will arrive in Warren by bus late the evening of August 21 and will be quartered in various sections of the YMCA building, on Liberty street. Warren residents who would like to entertain a few of the boys at a local while they are here may call Chairman Mar-H. Buhrke of The Times-Mirror, 1400.

Wide Search Renewed For Woman Who Disappeared

(From Page One)

Sheriff Lunder, leading the investigation, decided upon the smaller and more experienced searching group today, with the object in mind that men thoroughly familiar with the area, could be organized in such manner that when the hunt is concluded they would be reasonably sure the woman was not in the section that will be thoroughly combed today. Between 40 and 100 men have been scouring the section daily since the woman was reported missing. The Sheriff stated that if the assistance of more are needed, volunteers will be asked for.

SOUTH KOREANS ARE ENGAGED IN ELECTION

Pusan, Korea, (AP)—South Koreans "balloted" trouble-free and orderly today in their first direct election of a president and vice president.

Police and troops were on the alert for expected Communist guerrilla raids on polling places but none were reported.

Overcast skies threatened rain, but government officials predicted 85 to 90 per cent of the 8,218,000 eligible voters would ballot.

Presidential candidates are the incumbent Syngman Rhee, former Communist leader Cho Bong Am, and former Vice President Lee Shi Yung, and former Ambassador to Japan Hugh Cynn.

FOUR LOSE LIVES IN MIAMI AIRPORT CRASH

Miami, Fla. (AP)—Four persons, including two teen age boys, died in twisted metal and flames last night when a C-46 plane crashed at Miami International Airport.

All aboard were killed—the pilot, Capt. George E. Smith, about 30, of Miami, co-pilot John N. Goodman of Vincennes, Ind., 26-year-old brother of Benny Goodman, and two teen age boys, Thomas, 15, and Glenn Slaughter, 13, brothers of Orlando, Fla.

NEGRO GAMBLING BOSS SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Chicago (AP)—Theodore Roe, wealthy-Negro gambling boss, was killed from ambush last night by assassins who blasted him with shotgun slugs when he stepped from his South Side apartment.

NEW YORK CENTRAL STRIKE IS DELAYED

New York (AP)—Talk of a strike on the New York Central's lines east of Buffalo, N. Y., was drowned out today by further peace chats which have eliminated any immediate walkout threat.

The railroad and four independent brotherhoods planned new negotiations today after spending all day yesterday at a parley table.

At issue in the dispute are some 300 working rules and grievances of two years' standing.

FIRE SCHOOL MIXUP

A session of fire school for civil defense firefighting students failed to materialize last evening at Central Fire Station when LeRoy D. Horton of Kane, instructor from the Public Service Institute of Harrisburg, failed to show up for the class. About 10 students in addition to all off-duty Warren firemen were present for the initial session, which is scheduled to extend for 18 weeks. Fire Chief Charles Albaugh is out of town on vacation, and it is not known if a confusion in dates was the cause of Mr. Horton's absence. Forty-six have enrolled for the classes, which comprise part paper study and part actual experience with borough equipment.

DOG VIOLATIONS

A crew of seven dog law enforcement officers, working in Erie county currently, have arrested 320 dog owners for having unlicensed dogs, and caused such a rush on the county treasurer's office that a special shipment of licenses was being sent from Harrisburg. Each of the owners has paid up a fine of $14.75. County records in Erie show that only about half the dogs are licensed. The enforcement officers were in Warren county during May, but made no such concentrated drive at that time.

BICYCLE WARNING

Many complaints have been received at city police headquarters in recent weeks about youngsters parking their bicycles on the sidewalks in front of theatres, stores and other public places in such a manner as to block pedestrian traffic. ★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

Marciano Hardly a Dempsey, But He's a Hurting Fighter

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Rocky Marciano now has had 42 professional matches, and still no one knows for sure whether he can fight Harry Matthews turned out to be little more than the myth so many suspected he might be.

Before the roof caved in at Yankee Stadium, the totally unmarked Matthews said he had never been hit save for the time he suffered a broken nose in 1943.

And when Marciano landed the second left hook in the second round, the Athlete acted just like a bloke who had never been hit. Marciano remains pretty crude, but as Jack Kearns best describes The Rock, he is a hurting fighter.

"He rates with Jack Dempsey as a hitter," says Doc Kearns. When a heavyweight with the sock of Marciano absorbs punishment and crowds the other fellow, he is on the move, and the Brockton Block Buster most certainly is right in the direction of Jersey Joe Walcott.

How Marciano will fare against the moving target that is the amazing Walcott is now the question. Marciano no doubt also will have to shake off the most devastating blow that has ever been parked on his chin, for the Great Father of Camden has clearly demonstrated that he packs a pistol in each fist.

BUT a plodding Louis finally caught Walcott, and there is little reason to doubt that the much younger and thoroughly aggressive Marciano won't do the same.

There is a tendency now to compare Marciano with Dempsey. They must mean the 21-year-old Dempsey, who first came to New York to box Wild Bert Kenney and John Lester Johnson 10 rounds each at the old Commonwealth Club in Harlem in the summer of 1916. He got little or no more money and disappeared.

Dempsey did not bump into Kearns until February of 1917, and there was a vast difference in him by late September of that year. Dempsey was 31 when he boxed Gene Tunney the first time, and his legs were beginning to go, yet the Manly Marine will tell you he did not once hit him squarely in 20 stanzas.

If Rocky Marciano, who has come a long way in four years, acquires Jack Dempsey's poise and polish, it won't even be close with anybody around today.

Winners Are Announced In Times - Mirror Trout Contest

Upon making a final check of the entries in the Times-Mirror Trout Contest, the official season having closed the last of July, the sports department announces the following first place winners in each division:

Gerald Miller, of Sugar Grove, will receive the cash prize in the Brownie division for his 25½ inch catch on May 30. The Brownie weighed six pounds.

In the Brook trout class, Harold Dobson, another Sugar Grove man, turned in a 16½ inch specimen weighing two pounds and five oz.

that he snagged on May 19. Dobson also caught a 22½ inch Brownie this past season.

Three dollars in cash goes to Ray Collins, of the Warren-Kinzua Road, for his entry of a 19½ inch Rainbow, weighing three pounds, which he pulled out of Brown Run.

In determining winners the length of the fish from the tip of the nose to the notch in the tail was used, the weight classification not being considered.

Each winner will have a three dollar check mailed to him for his reward.

Through The Wind Tunnel

Merle Fleming, borough employee who operates the street sweeper during the early morning hours when most folks are asleep, has turned over to the sports department of the Times-Mirror a catcher's mitt, which he picked up one morning last week. The owner may have same by calling at the office, identifying the glove and explaining where he lost it.

The American Legion Baseball team of Kane, which has an age limit from 15 to approximately 19, is anxious to book some Sunday afternoon games to be played at Glenwood Park in Kane. Anyone interested can call George Lingle in that community.

Here's hoping the Jaycees who are planning to play softball against the Jamestown Chamber at Midway next Monday will be recuperated from last Saturday's game of touch (and that's putting it mildly) football.

The Campbell youngsters at Hackney Meadows are right proud of their harmonizing ability. More practice sessions are promised.

The gardener at the Sylvania plant on Lexington avenue, waging a real battle against the dry weather of yesterday afternoon, must have sighed with relief when he heard the rain pattering down last night. Although the Sylvania lawn has suffered, along with all others, the plants and small trees along the building itself are in fine condition.

In fact, last night's rain has already given a new complexion to greenery all about the town.

Out in the country it has been so dry that Abigail says she could tell, by the dust clouds, that Si Clickensapple was ten minutes late leaving the house to do his Monday morning chores. Later, when old Mizz Clickensapple, sent up a cloud of ash she dashed out to hang up the wash, ten minutes early, Abigail could tell why he was late: the mizzus had him helping at the wringer.

SON OF LION GREAT

Charley Moore, American Olympic record-breaker in the 400-meter hurdles, is the son of Charles (Crip) Moore, former Penn State hurdler. Both prepped at Mercersburg Academy.

Vic and Allie Look To the Records of Trout & Newhouser

Remember when Hal Newhouser and Dizzy Trout combined their talents to hurl the Detroit Tigers to the 1945 American League pennant? At the time, baseball fans didn't think their great two-fold performance would be matched for some time to come.

Don't look now, but Vic Raschi and Allie Reynolds, a pair of New York Yankee mountsmen, are threatening to do it all over again.

Raschi tossed his 11th straight win last night, a 1-0 blanking of the Washington Senators that brought his season slate to 13-2. Tonight, Reynolds faces the same Senators in the nation's capital and will be shooting for his 13th in 20 decisions. That means the two Yank righthanders, with 25 wins between them, have accounted for better than 40 per cent of their team's 62 triumphs.

The Yanks won it in the sixth inning when ex-New Yorker Bob Porterfield walked: Gil McDougald with the bases loaded to force over Hank Bauer with the game's only tally. Bauer reached base when with one-out Mickey Grasso fumbled his tap in front of the plate.

Mickey Mantle then moved him to third with a bouncing double over first baseman Mickey Vernon's head, after Yogi Berra fled to Gil Coan. Porterfield then passed Gene Woodling intentionally to load the sacks.

So the Yanks are now 3½ games in front of second-place Cleveland and another full game ahead of third-place Boston, both of which were idle last night along with the rest of the American League and all of the National.

Soldier Kiely On Mound for Red Sox
Boston (AP)—Leo Kiely of Hoboken, N. J., took a night off from being a soldier and pitched the Boston Red Sox to a 1-0 exhibition game victory over the New York Giants last night.

Kiely, on leave from his Indian town Gap, Pa., army unit, took over in the third inning with the score 0-0 and held the Giants to one hit the rest of the way. Ellis Kinder pitched the first two innings. The game was an annual charity affair for veterans. A return game will be played at the Polo Grounds later this season.

Shantz Seeks His 20th Current Win
Philadelphia (AP)—Little Bobby Shantz climbs up on the mound at Shibe Park tonight in search of his 20th win of the current American League season.

If the Philadelphia Athletics' condensed curveballer comes through—and he's failed only three times this year—he'll be the first major league hurler to reach the magic 20-game circle in the 1952 campaign.

His record of 19 wins against only three losses prior to tonight's game is tops in both major loops. His earned run mark of 1.55 is the best in the junior circuit and he has 110 strikeouts—only one less than the leader, Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox.

What are believed to have been the first photographs of the moon were made in 1849.

Youngsville Church Bowlers Will Meet

A meeting of all Church League bowlers will be held at nine o'clock this evening in the IOOF Hall at Youngsville to discuss plans for the coming season.

All bowlers in the 1951 teams are cordially invited as well as any new teams which may desire to enter. League officers and team captains will be elected this evening, and league rules drawn up. It will also be decided whether or not a handicap league will be formed.

New alleys being installed by the Youngsville IOOF lodge are progressing and will be ready for use about September 1, it is believed.

Penn State Offers Wrestling Refresher
